Indivisible Arlington Announces Endorsement of Parisa D. Tafti

(Arlington, VA) – Indivisible Arlington, a local political activist group with 1800 members, announced its endorsement of Parisa D. Tafti for Commonwealth’s Attorney of Arlington and Falls Church. Indivisible Arlington’s mission is to pressure the current government to implement progressive policies and elect officials with progressive values.

The group stated: “Based on the priorities we established over the past year, including criminal justice reform, immigration reform and racial justice, we find that the platform of Parisa Tafti, candidate for Commonwealth’s Attorney for Arlington and the City of Falls Church, aligns with our beliefs and values. The primary date is Tuesday, June 11th and it will be an important race that could positively impact the direction of criminal justice reform in Arlington.”

“I am grateful for Indivisible Arlington’s support of this campaign,” Tafti stated. “Indivisible Arlington is a well-known leader in our local progressive movement and I look forward to continuing to work alongside its members for progressive change right here in our community.”

Parisa D. Tafti, is a Democratic candidate for Commonwealth’s Attorney in Arlington County and the City of Falls Church, Virginia. The Democratic primary will be held on June 11, 2019.
